ARTICLE XIII, SECTION 6

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the state of Utah, two-thirds of all members elected to each of the two houses voting in favor thereof:

Section 1. It is proposed to amend Utah Constitution Article XIII, Section 6, to read:

Article XIII, Section 6. [State Tax Commission.]

(1) There shall be a State Tax Commission consisting of four members~~[, not more than two of whom may belong to the same political party].~~

(2) With the consent of the Senate, the Governor shall appoint the members of the State Tax Commission for such terms as may be provided by statute.

(3) The State Tax Commission shall:

(a) administer and supervise the State's tax laws;

(b) assess mines and public utilities and have such other powers of original assessment

32 as the Legislature may provide by statute;
33 (c) adjust and equalize the valuation and assessment of property among the counties;
34 (d) as the Legislature provides by statute, review proposed bond issues, revise local tax
35 levies, and equalize the assessment and valuation of property within the counties; and 36 (e) have other powers as may be provided by statute.
37 (4) Notwithstanding the powers granted to the State Tax Commission in this
38 Constitution, the Legislature may by statute authorize any court established under Article VIII
39 to adjudicate, review, reconsider, or redetermine any matter decided by the State Tax
40 Commission relating to revenue and taxation.

41 Section 2. Submittal to voters.

42 The lieutenant governor is directed to submit this proposed amendment to the voters of 43 the state at the next regular general election in the manner provided by law.

44 Section 3. Contingent effective date.

45 If the amendment proposed by this joint resolution is approved by a majority of those
46 voting on it at the next regular general election, the amendment shall take effect on January 1, 47 2015.
